Direct Cremation is a no service, no attendance cremation of the deceased, with the ashes delivered to the family following the cremation taking place. The family often use the ashes at a later date in a memorial ceremony for the deceased.

Cremation with a service can either have the coffin present with the cremation taking place following the funeral service, or, the cremation can take place first, followed by a memorial service at a later date. With both options, the ashes are delivered to the family following the cremation taking place.

Burial with a service can be a funeral service followed by the burial graveside service, or, the graveside service can take place first, followed by a memorial service at a later date.

TRANSFER is the transferring of the deceased from the place of death to the crematorium or mortuary. Weekend rates apply. Home transfers are charged at a slightly higher rate.

MORTUARY CARE includes nightly storage, preparation of the deceased, depending upon the individual circumstance.

FUNERAL DIRECTOR entails organising the transfer, meeting with the family to complete documentation, coordinating with external suppliers, registering the death with The Registry of BDM, delivering the ashes back to the family.

COFFIN Prices vary depending on choice of make and model.

CELEBRANT A professional celebrant is an integral part of the funeral process.

HEARSE Your choice of a range of hearses from vintage Mercedes to modern models.

FUNERAL SERVICE VENUE - Service Venues can vary greatly, from a Surf Club, Community Centre, a Park, Family home, a place of worship, through to a Crematorium chapel.

FUNERAL STAFF numbers on the day, vary depending on the needs of the venue, as well as forecast attendance.

CREMATION CERTIFICATES There are two cremation certs.

DEATH CERTIFICATE As issued by The Registry of BDM.

CREMATION FEE Paid to the crematorium.

PICALUNA SERVICE FEE Picaluna sources everything for you at wholesale rates, then applies a 40% Service Fee to the wholesale cost of the funeral.

What Does a Funeral Cost?

Picaluna does things a little differently; we see our role is to assist and empower families to create meaningful and authentic farewells that are aligned with their values... and at an affordable price. We are completely transparent with our pricing, sourcing everything at cost and applying a 40% Service fee to the wholesale cost of the funeral.

We Believe in Giving Back

We donate 5% of our profit to your choice from one of our Picaluna Charity partners. We have donated more than $207,100 to well over 160 different charities since our launch in October 2016.

IMPORTANT CONSIDERATIONS

All the prices in this document are just a guide, there are many ways to personalise a funeral. If you would like a more accurate price guide or quote for your circumstance, please get in touch with us.

FLOWERS Coffin Splash start from $440

Can include a coffin splash, floral arrangements, single stem flowers, floral tributes such as wreaths etc.

VIEWING From $660

Entails one night's stay at the mortuary, basic preparation of the body, Viewing Room hire, and additional transfer fee from mortuary to crematorium.

ORDER OF SERVICE BOOKLETS $275 - $440

These can be black and white or colour, multiple pages.

LIVE WEBCASTING $1,210 to $1,980

Professional live streaming creates a beautiful experience for family and friends to easily be part of such an important moment from afar. High quality cameras and microphones discreetly capture all the important details. A recording of the funeral is available to watch later plus it can be downloaded and kept as a treasured tribute.

END OF LIFE DOULA

Hourly rate depending upon circumstances

An end of life Doula is a non-medical companion, who provides emotional, social and spiritual support to the dying, and to those around them. They help open up the conversation about death and loss and on a more practical level, they will provide company if/when the family needs to take breaks, or help set up a community support system.

BURIAL PLOT $5,500 to $35,000

Generally the family deals directly with the cemetery when purchasing the burial plot.

BURIAL FEE FROM $1,650

This cost is the minimum one could expect to pay for opening and closing of the grave. Often this is paid directly to the cemetery by the family.
